

FCC, It is my belief that Satellite Radio should be allowed to carry on with all of the services it provides including the traffic reports. Satellite Radio is providing some new competition in the world of entertainment and this is what this country is about. Also I pay for this service, & this is my choice.

Thank you,

Marc